

Torrance Juniors

'The Winning Ticket' Is Initiation Theme

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club will hold its annual Initiation Luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Saturday in the Devonshire Room of the Plush Horse. Chairman of the event is Mrs. John Batley, second vice-president in charge of membership.

The initiation theme will be "We Salute Our New Candidates" and is in keeping with the president's theme for the year:

THE WINNING TICKET

CANDIDATES: The Torrance Juniors.

SLOGAN: Build Today for a Better Tomorrow.

PLATFORM: A Foundation of Service Through Federation.

Red, white, and blue will be the predominant colors used by Decorations Chairman Mrs. Richard Leonard and at each table an Uncle Sam hat will be featured as the centerpiece.

Invited honored guests include: Mrs. Michael Riley, Marina District president, C.F.W.C. Junior Membership; Mrs. Robert Winship, president of the Torrance Woman's Club; Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, honorary life member; Mrs. Dean L. Sears, honorary life member.

Mothers of the Junior members will also be honored guests, and a Mother-Daughter Appreciation Response will be given by Junior member Mrs. Archie Kozak and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Fred Sturgeoff.

The history of the League of Women Voters is the topic chosen by guest speaker, Mrs. Gladys Mead.

The impressive candlelight initiation ceremony will be conducted by President Mrs. Douglas Hedde; First Vice-President Mrs. Leon Taylor, Second Vice-President Mrs. John Batley, and Co-ordinators from the Torrance Woman's Club, Mrs. Leslie Steigh and Mrs. D. J. Thomsen.

The new Junior initiates are: Mmes. Al Banner, Robert Cutler, George Davidson, Charles Daniel, James Griffith, Karl Keidser, Loren Luna, Jack Hughes, James Sweetey, Ronald Toole, and Karl Wall.

Mrs. John Batley, membership chairman of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, radiates friendship for three new club members (top to bottom) Mmes. Al Banner, Jack Hughes, and Robert Cutler. The women will be initiated at luncheon ceremonies Saturday in the Devonshire Room, Plush Horse.

The Door Of Friendship Opens

Mrs. Douglas Hedde (standing, right), president of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, welcomes new members (clockwise, beginning top left) Mmes. James Sweetey, James Griffith, Ron Toole, and George Davidson. New members not pictured are Mmes. Charles Daniel, Karl Wall, Karl Keidser, and Loren Luna. (Press-Herald Photo)

Three Modern-Day 'Bonnies'

Beads and berets will be the order of the day Saturday, Nov. 16, when the Women's Council of St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church stage its swinging Roaring Twenties party in the parish hall. Getting into the Roaring Twenties mood for the event are Mrs. Stanley Jackson (front), ticket chairman; Mrs. George Ittner (top), chairman; and Mrs. Fred Messbarger, cochairman. Costumes are optional. (Press-Herald Photo)

23 Skidoo

Catholic Women Plan Gala 'Twenties' Fete

The Women's Council of St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church will sponsor its annual dance of the year by turning the pages of history back half a century to the swinging days of the Roaring Twenties.

The event will be held Nov. 16 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the parish hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd. Donation is $3.50 per couple.

In keeping with the theme of the dance, a prize will be awarded for the best costume. However, the attire for the evening is optional.

A highlight of the evening will be the Charleston contest.

The Majestics will provide music, concentrating on the "oldies-but-goodies." A midnight buffet will be served under the direction of Mrs. Harry Lockwood.

Mrs. George Ittner, general chairman for the dance, is assisted by Mrs. John Porter, raffle prize, and Mrs. Stanley Jackson, ticket chairman.

Reservations may be made in advance by calling Mrs. Jackson. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Mrs. Larry Plummer, president of the Women's Council, has invited the public to attend this gala Roaring Twenties event.

Press-Herald

Social Worlds

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1968

B-1

New Opportunity

Glancing over plans for an arty season of cultural events are Mount St. Mary's College students Eileen Hail (left) of Torrance and Margaret Gonzales of Gardena. The cultural activities will take place in The Whiffletree, newest hall on the Doheny Campus of the college. Students plan to host various interesting people from theatre, arts, and education at small, informal coffee hours at The Whiffletree.

'Early California' Luncheon Planned

"Early California Ways and Days" will be the theme of the annual luncheon of the Los Angeles Bay Harbor District of California Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc., Wednesday from 12 noon to 3 p.m.

Setting for the gala event will be the early Spanish style home of Judge and Mrs. Donald Armstrong, located on a half-acre estate in Palos Verdes. This is one of the oldest homes in Palos Verdes, built in 1929. It also has one of the most beautiful gardens.

Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mrs. Carroll Stough, District director; Mrs. E. A. Schoenbaum, assistant director; J. C. Newton, ways and means; Jack S. Gates, coordinator; and J. T. Casstevens, hostessing. Luncheon will start off with a wine tasting, followed with a menu of tasty Early California foods.

Guests are asked to wear costumes to fit the theme. There will be a "Do It Yourself" Shop, Food Shop, Plant Sale, Stitchery Sale, and Bay of Treasures.

Proceeds from the luncheon will go for conservation to save California Redwoods, and to the South Coast Botanical Gardens in Rolling Hills.

Participating in the luncheon will be Gardeners, Silver Spur Garden Club, South Bay Garden Club, Hermosa Beach Garden Club, Las Colinas Garden Club, San Pedro Garden Club, Beau Jardin Club, Long Beach Garden Club, and Riviera Garden Club.

Eastern Star Order Sets Installation Rites

The Seventieth Installation of Eastern Star Chapter 171, Order of Eastern Star, will be held Saturday, 8 p. m., at the Redondo Beach Masonic Temple, 116 Ruby St., Redondo Beach.

Installing officers will be Mmes. Elizabeth Georgeadis, June Jeffries, William A. Bailey, Everett Morian and Bruce Plank; Dr. William A. Bailey and Charles Hostens, all past matrons and patrons of the order.

Newly-elected officers are Mrs. Raymond Lambert, worthy matron; Milo Bagley, worthy patron; Mrs. Elston McGinty, associate matron; and Elston McGinty, associate patron.

More are Mrs. Donald Meredith, secretary; Mrs. Joseph E. Terrill, treasurer; Mrs. Irby N. Anderson, conductress; Mrs. Clarence R. Lewis, associate conductress; and Mrs. Lorna Mearns, chaplain.

Also to be installed are Mrs. Kenneth L. Scroggins, marshal; Mrs. Milo Bagley, organist; Mrs. Manley L. Swanson, Adah; Mrs.

William C. Hanna, Ruth; Mrs. Joseph Riggiano, Esther; Mrs. Mary Stricklin, Martha; Mrs. Frank Strutevant, Electa; Mrs. Manuel Martinez, warder; and Mrs. Wallace McMullen, sentinel.

Hostesses are Mmes. William Krimmel, Betty Smith, Frederick N. Farrell, John Heinemann, Clair Waggoner, Shirley Dobbs, and M. W. Schneider.

Others participating are Mrs. Bess McMahon, electrician; Mrs. June Jeffries, publicity; and Mrs. Elizabeth Georgeadis, prompter.

Usherettes will include members of Rainbow Assembly 66 and Job's Daughters Bethel 61. Members of Redondo DeMoily chapter will usher.

Outgoing matron and patron are Mrs. Kenneth Gardner and George Seidel.

Mrs. Vida Waygood, deputy grand matron of the 75th District, will be introduced.

Soloist will be Miss Elizabeth Salsbury. A committee headed by Mrs. Jack Weidner and Mrs. William A. Bailey will serve refreshments.

Days of Bells and Roses

Mrs. Robert Karicofe (left) displays one of her original holiday wreath designs to two coworkers, Mrs. Kerme Anderson (center) and Mrs. Harold Allen of the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary. The wreath is one of many colorful Christmas decorations be shown at the Auxiliary's Annual Christmas Preview, Nov. 11 through 15, at the hospital. Chairman Mrs. Douglas Hugli will be assisted by Mmes. Jack Chelius, Lyman Gibbs, Eleanor Hayes, Karicofe, Anderson and Allen. The public is invited to the event. (Press-Herald Photo)